REBELS LOSING THEIR STRENGTH

Become Insubordinate in Hu-Peh Province and Shoot Their Officers.

THREATEN TO BOYCOTT GOODS

Foreign Legations Receive Telegrams to That Effect Provided Any Nation Makes Loan to Chinese Government.

Peking, Nov. 29.—The foreign legations here have received printed circulars purporting to come from the revolutionary organization threatening to boycott the merchandise of any nation making a loan to the government.

Premier Yuan Shi Kai today informed a member of one of the legations who visited him that the crisis would be terminated in eight days. As he is endeavoring to obtain a loan, his statement may mean that he expects to be successful.

Yuan Shi Kai is showing a desire to conciliate the rebel provinces. It is believed that he will safeguard the constitution.

No direct private or press telegrams are permitted to leave Hankow. Only government and consular dispatches are now forwarded.

Military dispatches from Hankow say that the strength of the revolutionary army is decreasing. Hu-Nan troops of the rebel side have refused to attack and that 5,000 rebel recruits in the province of Hu-Peh have become insubordinate and shot their officers.

SUES FOR RECOVERY OF LOAN

Millionaire Would Pay Debt But Wife Won't Let Him

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—An interesting suit was filed in court here today by John Ross, a small contractor, against Joseph C. Trees, millionaire oil operator and philanthropist, for the recovery of $372 which he alleges he loaned Trees in 1896 when the present millionaire was poor and had just been married. In his bill of complaint Ross says that after repeated attempts to collect the debt he met Trees on the street recently and that Trees made the following statement:

"I know I owe you the money and I would pay you John, because you befriended me when I had not anything. I would pay you, but Claudie, my wife, won't let me."

Ross recites that Trees, when poor, boarded with him. When Trees was married, he says he loaned Trees $400 toward building a small house and paid $22 to have the gas connected from the street to the house. In 1897 Trees paid him $50 on account, Ross states, but he has since been unable to collect any portion of the balance of $372.

WANT TREATY ANNULLED

Make Request of Senator to Support Resolution

Baltimore, Nov. 29.—A delegation of prominent Hebrews of this city, called upon United States Senator John Walter Smith today and requested the Senator to support the resolution now pending in the Federal Senate calling for the abrogation of the treaty with Russia of 1832, claiming that this action is justified by the discrimination of the Russian government against Jewish citizens of the United States.

Senator Smith assured his visitors of his support of the proposed action which he said he regarded as reasonable and proper.

IMPROVE COLORADO'S LEVEES.

Mexican Government Has Given U. S. Permission

Washington, Nov. 29.—Upon the return to Washington today, from Mexico City, of Assistant Secretary Carmie Thompson, of the Interior Department, announcement was made that the Mexican government had given permission to the United States to improve the levees along the Colorado river in Mexico.

Water from a break in the levee along the west bank of the Colorado river in Mexico and from Volcano Lakes, which is fed by the Colorado river, threatened to overflow the Imperial Valley in California.

PRESIDENT'S THANKSGIVING

Forty-Pound Turkey Will Be Star Attraction of Dinner

Washington, Nov. 29.—The forty-pound Rhode Island turkey, milk-fed and enticing, that is to grace the Thanksgiving table at the White House tomorrow, arrived in Washington today. It was taken to the kitchens of the executive mansion and the chef began to plan a dinner with the turkey as the star attraction. The managers of an "apple show" now in progress here, will send the President some of the finest apples to be seen at the exhibition and altogether President Taft hopes to have a fine Thanksgiving dinner.

New York, Nov. 29.—A final decree of divorce was granted today by Supreme Court Justice Stapleton, on the Brooklyn, to Capt. Peter C. Hains, the slayer of William E. Annis. Capt. Hains brought action several months ago in which Annis was named as corespondent.

ADVANCE IN PRICE OF STEEL

[illegible]ust Announces that Price Will [illegible]her After January 1st.—[illegible]se in Orders Are Heavy.

New York, Nov. 29.—An advance of $1 to $1.50 a ton in the price of steel bars for delivery after January 1st, was announced today by the Republic Iron & Steel Company, and the United States Steel Corporation. John A. Topping, of the former concern, made public a statement to the effect that steel bars will sell hereafter for spot delivery at 1.10, Pittsburg as basis and $1.15 for future delivery. The steel corporation announced that it was selling bars for delivery during the first quarter of 1912 at $1.15 and at $1.10 spots.

Orders for steel are coming at the rate of about 40,000 tons a day, the steel corporation announced, and operations are now about 75 per cent. of capacity. If orders increase the operations of the plant will have to be expanded to take care of them, the announcement continued.

More than ordinary interest attaches to the increase by reason of the testimony offered by Judge Gary before the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce today. Chairman Gary was quoted as saying that many manufacturers were at the moment selling below cost and were threatened with bankruptcy if the situation continued. At the office of the United States Steel Corporation no details concerning the rise in bars were obtainable, all inquiries being referred to Pittsburg.

Little surprise was expressed at the increase announced by the Republic company, one of the largest independent producers, it having been known that that company was getting a considerable share of new business under the reduced price schedules. So far as could be learned no price advances in other products are immediately contemplated.

THE WESTERN GOVERNORS

Number of Them Making Special Visit to the East

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 29.—The Western Governors' Special arrived in Grand Rapids this afternoon. President Clements, of the Grand Rapids Board of Trade, acted as official host from Kalamazoo.

On the way from Kalamazoo the Governors went into executive session, the first of the trip. One of the results of it was the adoption of the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"On this, the eve of the day set apart by the President and the Chief Executives of the States for thanksgiving and prayer, the undersigned Governors on a tour of the East to extend the greetings and good will of those they represent to their brethren in the older States, congratulates the people of the Nation upon the many blessings received and enjoyed by them during the past year.

"The soil has yielded bounteously of its treasure, neither war nor pestilence has been its grim toll of their numbers; education and morality have made noticeable progress, material comforts have multiplied and good citizenship has made decided advancement and commercial activitly and industrial growth have become more pronounced and extended.

"With so much to be thankful for, a grateful people should make the morrow indeed a day of thanksgiving on which praise should be freely offered to Him from whom all good and perfect things come."

Governor Chase S. Osborn, of Michigan, Lieutenant Governor Fitzgerald, of Colorado; Governor Eberhart, of Minnesota, and former Governor Barnes, of Washington, speaking at a mass meeting in the People's church of this city today, all joined in the declaratione that woman suffrage is a movement which is bound to sweep the country within the next few years, and were unanimous in their support of the movement and in their praise of its operation in the States where it has been tried.

LIMIT TERM SURGEON GENERAL.

Effort Being Made to Make it Four Years.

Washington, Nov. 29.—An effort is being made to limit the term of successor of the late Dr. Walter Wyman, as surgeon general of the public health and marine hospital service, to four years. The previous indefinite term of this official always has been regarded as a life tenure. Surgeons H. W. Austin, of Stapleton, N. Y., and L. L. Williams, of Chelsea, Mass., both of the public health and marine hospital service, today took up the matter with Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh and Assistant Secretary Bailey. The successor of Dr. Wyman has not yet been selected. The name most prominently mentioned is that of Dr. Rupert Blue, who has just been ordered to Washington from the Honolulu public health and marine hospital station. Dr. J. H. White, in charge of the New Orleans station, also has been mentioned in connection with the place.

"GIVE ME A THOUSAND."

Bank Teller Complies and Stranger Hurries Away.

Van Couver, B. C., Nov. 29.—At the command of an unmasked man armed with a revolver, A. D. McLeod, teller of the Grand View branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, today handed over $1,000 cash. The robber escaped. Only two clerks were in the bank when the stranger entered.

"Give me a thousand," he laconically ordered, and the teller complied. The stranger putting the roll of bills into his pocket, hurried away.

MRS. PATTERSON A FREE WOMAN

Jury Returns Verdict of Not Guilty, After Four Ballots.

CHEERED BY LARGE CROWDS

Jury Was One-sided on the First Ballot—Accepted Defendant's Story of Shooting After Being Knocked Down.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 29.—Gertrude Gibson Patterson accused of the murder of her husband, Charles A. Patterson, whom she shot to death while the couple were walking together in a suburb on September 25th, today was declared not guilty by a jury in the District Court.

As the clerk finished reading the verdict Mrs. Patterson sprang to her feet and caught the outstretched hand of her attorney. From outside the court room came a roar of cheers; but inside the room the crowd was quiet. But, as court adjourned and Mrs. Patterson stepped forward to thank the jurors, the crowd overwhelmed her with congratulations. Her efforts to reach the jurors were vain. Later four of the jurors called on her as she was making ready to leave the jail.

The space between the court room and the jail was packed with a cheering crowd. On the arm of her attorney, Mrs. Patterson struggled through the throng while men tried to shake her hand and women strove to kiss her. Behind her, waving both hands, went her father, shouting his joy. Close behind him followed the mother and sister, both in tears.

As Mrs. Patterson stepped from the jail rotunda, gay with Thanksgiving decorations, the 150 prisoners gave her a round of cheers.

At no time in the deliberations of the jury were there more than two votes for conviction. Four ballots were taken. The first resulted in ten for acquittal and two for conviction of murder in the first degree. This ballot was taken last night after the jury, which retired at 9:45 P. M., had made its preliminary survey of the evidence. After that ballot the jury went to bed.

The second ballot was taken soon after the jury returned from breakfast, resulting as the first. An hour's discussion followed, and the third ballot stood 11 to 1 for acquittal.

The fourth ballot was unanimous for acquittal.

Because of the funeral of Judge Bliss all courts had adjourned. Word was sent to Judge Allen at the cemetery, but it was two hours before he reached the court room.

The verdict hung, it is declared, on Mrs. Patterson's trip to Europe with another man after she had married Patterson. Whether this trip was taken with her husband's knowledge and consent, after he had received $1,500 from the man with whom she went as she contended, or whether she had withheld from Patterson the true nature of the trip as the State contended, was the subject, it is said, with which most of the jurors' discussion dealt.

The jurors accepted Mrs. Patterson's story of the shooting that she had fired after her husband had knocked her to the ground.

Mrs. Patterson spent a restless night, while the jurors voted.

From her cell window she could look across at the jury room and as long as the lights were burning she kept her eyes fixed on the spot where 12 men were deciding her fate.

This morning her composure returned. She sat calmly in her cell, talking with members of her family and a few newspaper men, but only in the most indirect way spoke of what might be in store for her.

As the jurors passed by the jail to breakfast, Mrs. Patterson pressed her face against the window and exclaimed: "Oh, you dear men, if you would only look up."

As the hours dragged on her confidence increased, but she confided to the matron, "my knees are so weak than I don't believe I could walk over to the court room."

She found strength, though, when she was called to court to hear the verdict that set her free and she was gay and strong thereafter.

Tonight Mrs. Patterson said she had no plans for the immediate future. She said she would not go into vaudeville, "as that would be cheapening and degrading," but she thought a part in a first-class theatrical company might tempt her.

Mrs. K. Patterson, mother of the slain man, listened to the reading of the verdict in silence. As she left the court room she put her hands to her ears to shut out the cheers of the crowd.

"I did not come for revenge but to see justice done," she declared, "but this brand of justice is a disgrace to Denver. I shall leave this place tonight."

"It's a travesty on justice," said Special Prosecutor Horace G. Benson.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The naval tugs Ajax and Uncas, with the barges they had in tow, about which some concern was felt several days ago, have arrived safely at Guantanamo, according to advices received at the Navy Department today.

GRAND PRIZE AUTO RACES

Eve of Classic of Oiled Roadway at Savannah, Ga.—Sixteen Mammoth Cars Wait the Starter's Signal.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 29.—The eve before the grand prize finds preparations complete for the 419 mile dash. Sixteen mammoth racing machines, stripped to the gears and representing the cream of American and European manufacturers, await the crack of the pistol announcing the start for the greatest American trophy race.

Incoming trains are crowded and the hotels as well as the hospitality of Savannah, now are taxed to the utmost with racing enthusiasts.

The drivers in tomorrow's race are among the most famous and fearless in their vocation. The dangers with which such a contest necessarily is fraught, are fully realized by these men, but apparently are not to be taken into consideration. Ralph Mulford's lightning speed in which he not only captured the Vanderbilt cup race, but also lowered the Santa Monica record has precipitated keen rivalry. Despite adverse course conditions, drivers entered in tomorrow's race freely assert that they will surprise this feat if their machines and tires will stand the terrible strain. The weather forecast is for "clear, crisp, scintillating weather."

The cold experienced today already has hardened the soft spots caused by yesterday's intermittent rains and the course probably will be much faster than expected.

Among the speed kings who attracted keen interest today was Bob Burman, in Joe Dawson's Marmon car. Burman is expected to take Dawson's place tomorrow and in today's trial he made the fast time of 16 flat for the 17 miles. This was considered good under prevailing conditions.

The two Fiat cars were also out today for short trial spins. Before retiring tonight, all 16 drivers and ther expert mechanicians made final minute examinations and tests of their racers.

The drivers of the Fiat cars are among the favorites in the betting tonight, but Ralph Mulford, because of Monday's performance in his Lozier, as well as several other famous drivers, are being backed to win. Chance and fortune largely will figure in the result of tomorrow's race and it is expected that tire changes will play a leading role.

FILE BILL IN EQUITY.

For Proper Use of Interest Money of Late Mrs. Eddy.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 29.—The allegation that the interest on a trust fund left by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, for the benefit of her grandchildren, is being used in whole or in part for the maintenance of litigation looking toward the setting aside of the residuary clause of Mrs. Eddy's, is contained in a bill in equity filed in the probate court today by Gen. Frank S. Steeter, one of the trustees. The trustees claim that this alleged use of the money is in violation of the terms of the trust and they ask the court for instructions as to further payments under the deed.

The bill charges that the money in question is being used to assist Mrs. Eddy's son George W. Glover, of Lead, S. D., and her adopted son, Dr. Ebenezer J. Foster-Eddy, of Waterbury, Vt., in their efforts to have the courts declare invalid the residuary clauses of the will which left property valued at about $2,000,000 to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, and to have this residue distributed among the next of kin.

New Orleans, La., November 2. — "Bid" and "Asked" quotations on the floor of the New Orleans cotton exchange will hereafter be taken into consideration by the Spot Revision Committee of the exchange in formulating its spot cotton quotations. The committee proved this plan at a meeting today after similar action had been taken on the matter by various other committees interested.

Even fresh nuts are not always what they are cracked up to be.

MAKES PLEA FOR "BIG BUSINESS"

Head of Steel Corporation Speaks Before Committee Investigating Trusts.

BIG CORPORATIONS ESSENTIAL

Says He Thinks Government Should Take Control to Prevent Their Misusing Great Power of Wealth—Suggestions.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Elbert H. Gary, executive head of the United States Steel Corporation, made a plea for "big business" today before the Senate Committee on Interstate commerce, which is searching for a solution of present trust problems in the United States.

"Big corporations are essential to development of the country and the maintenance of business prosperity," he said. "To prevent their misusing the enormous power that comes with wealth and control of industrial agencies, he thought the government should take control of them, through a corporation or a trade commission with absolute power to regulate their affairs. Add to this a clear law as to what can and what cannot be done, the strong light of publicity on all the affairs of corporations, and the elimination of presidential and other political issues from the business world and the 'unrest' that has spread over the United States, will largely disappear", says Mr. Gary.

"The coming election is already disturbing business," he added. He said members of the courts ought to be appointed for life; that the President ought to be elected for eight years without the privilege of re-election, so that he would be in "a position and frame of mind" where he would not be tempted to "look in any direction or toward any interests" in seeking re-election.

Mr. Gary dwelt at length upon the political situation. He said he had no particular President in mind, but that he believed fewer elections and less reason for seeking public or private support for political purposes would aid greatly in keeping business at a level.

Judge Gary recommended the Federal license of corporations, their control by a trade commission, the publicity of all their affairs, and the sanction of certain acts which the commission might consider not to be "restraint of trade'.'

He declared unrestricted competition meant the ruin of the small individual or concern, and the gradual strengthening of the natural monopoly of the larger. As opposed to this he urged that the government recognize the need of partial agreements between corporations and individuals so that an actual competition might be still maintained that would be fair and free to all interests.

"Is there any particular thing now clearly forbidden by the Sherman law that you think ought to be permitted?" asked Senator Cummins.

Mr. Gary thought not, but he said the business difficulty lay in deciding before hand what amounted to a "restraint of trade."

The famous "Gary dinners" where steel men gathered to discuss their affairs, were not to fix prices, but to disclose their business condition to each other, he said.

"Every gentleman there, if he was a gentleman, could go away with a full knowledge of his competitors' affairs and could shape his business so as not to ruin his competitor," said Mr. Gary.

He added that he had not dared to hold these conferences lately; that there was no means of knowing exactly what constituted a violation of the Sherman law.

"Congress should trust the right of the Supreme Court to interpret and virtually make the laws," said President John H. Gray, of the University of Minnesota, who followed Mr. Gary before the Senate committee. "We have apparently come to a point where the National Legislature is about to be abolished. The courts are interpreting the law and the one who interprets the law is actually the one who makes it."

AIRSHIP TESTS.

Navy Aviators to Go to Cuba for Further Tests.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 29.—The aviators of the navy, who have been conducting a series of tests with different types of flying machines here for the last three months, will leave for Santiago, Cuba, about January 1st, where further tests will be conducted during the Winter. The plan is to return to Annapolis in the Spring.

DIDN'T CAUSE RESIGNATION

Assistant Secretary of Interior Department Denies that "Political Ring" Caused Resignation of Wm. E. Johnston

Washington, Nov. 29.—Denial that a "political ring" in the Interior Department had caused the resignation of William E. Johnson, until recently chief liquor inspector for the Indian service, was made today by First Assistant Secretary Adams. The Women's Christian Temperance Union interested itself in Mr. Johnson's behalf and it has been intimated that a Congressional investigation might result.

Mr. Johnson wrote to Secretary Fisher calling attention to a statement of the secretary's that Johnson preferred to resign rather than meet "certain definite charges against him," and stated that he was aware of any charges pending, had never been given opportunity to answer any charges, if made, and requested that he be provided with a copy of the address. Secretary Adams, to whom the letter was referred by Secretary Fisher, wrote in reply:

"You were called to Washington by me. In my office I made certain definite charges against you orally. You were questioned in detail about these matters; they were pointed out specifically to you and full opportunity afforded you to explain; you were told you were being given further and full opportunity to present any defense you liked; informed that you were called to Washington to avoid the delay incident to the formulation of written charges, which, if found true, would involve your dismissal. You raised no objection to the manner in which the charges were preferred against you, nor to the time given you for answering them. Instead of meeting these charges, or putting in any denfense, or attempting even to deny them, you, on the same day on which made, stated your desire to resign from the service, and submitted your resignation within a few hours.

"Since your resignation was accepted, certain other matters have come to my attention, which, in my opinion, would be sufficient reason for your discharge were you still in the employ of the Department."

HUNTERS FIRED UPON

Negro Sought by Police Thought Posse Was After Him.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 29. — Messrs. R. A. Richardson, Herman West and a young man by the name of Rogers, who live in and near Dover, were assailed by an unknown negro while possum hunting two miles from Dover last night and were shot at three times with a shot gun by the unknown assailant. While they did not know who the attacking party was it is believed that it was a negro named Ben Matthews who shot Chief of Police Rouse Saturday night and who has been in hiding since then. It is thought that Matthews believing that the possum hunters were a posse in search of him, opened fire on them when he saw them coming through the woods with a torch. Mr. Richardson who was in front with the torch received the greater part of the first shot from the gun, most of the charge lodging in his arm and one striking him near the eye. Messrs. West and Rogers received only one small shot each. None of the wounds are serious. Efforts were made by the Dover people to secure blood hounds and track down the man who did the shooting but they were not successful. They are still searching for him, however.

The shooting of Chief Rouse took place Saturday night when after hearing a gun fire he went to the scene and found Ben Matthews with a shot gun. He spoke to Matthews about it and asked him if he did not know that it was a violation of a town ordinance to fire off a gun within the town limits? The negro made some angry retort and backed off from the officer and fired at him. Only a few small shots took effect and they produced no serious injury. Matthews then ran off and has since been in hiding. Chief Rouse has offered a reward of $10 for his capture.

SUFFRAGETTES INVADED TMPLE

By Noisy Interruptions Prevent Premier's Delivering Speech

London, Nov. 29.—Suffragettes, in pursuance of the policy of militant tactics recently revived, invaded the city temple tonight and by noisy interruptions prevented Premier Asquith from delivering a speech on settlement work. The Premier, after repeated efforts to get a hearing, left the church in disgust.

The trouble began as soon as Mr. Asquith mounted the rostrum. Scores of women greeted him with cries of "votes for women." One of their number chained herself to a pillar and was removed only after a violent struggle, during which the audience was in an uproar.

James Ramsay MacDonald, the labor leader, who spoke after Mr. Asquith, had left described the scene as an insult to the Prime Minister and degradation to English public life.

STRUCK BY STREET CAR.

Wilmington Man in Norfolk Sent to Hospital.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 29.—T. J. Latham, of Wilmington, N. C., was struck by a street car here today and received injuries which necessitated his being sent to a hospital where he will probably be confined for several days. Mr. Latham was on a visit to his son in Portsmouth.

RED HAT WILL BE CONFERRED TODAY

On the Eighteen New Cardinals in the Hall of Beautification.

THREE OF THEM AMERICANS

Final Ceremony in Creation of New Members of Sacred College—Eighteen New Cardinals to be Honored.

Rome, Nov. 29.—The final ceremony in the creation of the new members of the Sacred College will take place tomorrow in the hall of the beatification, when the red hat will be conferred on the 18 new cardinals, which include three American prelates, Mgr. Falconio, formerly apostolic delegate; Mgr. Farley, archbishop of New York, and Mgr. O'Connell, archbishop of Boston.

The Pope received the new cardinals today and accepted benignly their most respectful homage. He imposed on each of them the red biretta and in response to the address of Cardinal Falconio, who acted as dean, expressed his thanks for the sentiments of devotion. He praised the eminent prelates whom he had chosen to enter the apostolic college, because of their piety, zeal and culture, the signal services they had rendered to the church and their unlimited devotion to the Holy See.

The pontiff gave particular greetings to the cardinals "coming from far America," saying: "The enthusiasm with which the news of your elevation was received, the demonstrations of gratification by all classes of citizens, the acclamations, accompanied by benedictions, affectionate salutations and best wishes on your departure from New York and Boston, and finally, your triumphal tourage across the ocean protected by the papal flag, give me not only hope but absolute assurance that, on your return, our Lord will multiply the fruits of your apostolate in that hospitable land which greets all peoples of the world and provides for their welfare through laws that mean liberty. The Almighty will reign and his glory will shine in that land."

He expressed the hope that the example of Catholics in England and Holland would influence the return of others in those countries to the bosom of the church. He spoke sorrowfully of the persecution of the church in France, trusting that divine mercy would hasten the day of repentance and ended by imparting the apostolic benediction.

The new cardinals have received the text of the oath which they will take tomorrow before entering the public consistory. It is a modified form of the ancient oath in which they swear "to be faithful and obedient to the blessed Peter, the Holy Roman Apostolic Church and the Most Holy Lord Pius X., and also his canonically elected successors."

"I shall try in every way," the oath continues, "to assert, uphold, preserve, increase and promote the rights, even temporal, the liberty, the honor, privileges and authority of the Holy Roman Church and our lord, the Pope, and his successors.

"I swear to observe and fulfill, and see that others observe and fulfill, the regulations, decrees, ordinances, dispensations, reservations and provisions of the apostolic mandates and constitutions of Xixtus I, of happy memory, and to combat with every effort, heretics, schismatics and rebellious utterances against our lord, the Pope, and his successor.

"When summoned for any reason by the holy father of his successor, I shall obey, or, when detained by just cause, I shall send some one to present by excuses."

"I swear not to receive a commission from any carnal power under any pretext to propose a veto even under the form of a simple desire, and not to disclose anything, no matter how known to me, either in open conclave or to the individual cardinals by writing or orally directly or indirectly, before or during the conclave and I promise to lend no help or countenance no intervention of any civil power in the election of the Pope."

TO THE HOSPITAL.

Mrs. O'Shaughnessy Will be Kept There a Month.

New York, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Frances O'Shaughnessy, who yesterday was acquitted by a jury on the ground of insanity on the charge of having murdered her husband "to save his soul", was paroled today in the custody of her counsel and Dr. William Mabon, of the Manhattan State Hospital. Judge Foster reserved final disposition of the case until he receives a report from her custodian.

Mrs. O'Shaughnessy was taken to the Manhattan State Hospital, where in the opinion of the physicians, she will be restored to a normal mental and physical condition within a month. It is probable that she will then be released.

Mrs. O'Shaughnessy has announced her intention of leaving this section of the country when she is discharged from the hospital. She will go West, she says, change her name and start life anew.

EAGLES' BANQUET.

One of the Most Enjoyable Affairs in History of Aerie.

One of the most thoroughly enjoyable affairs in fraternal circles in some months was the elaborate and altogether delightful banquet last night by Carolina Aerie, No. 1171, Fraternal Order of Eagles, in its lodge rooms on North Front street. There were present only a few persons outside members of the aerie and all in attendance declared it to have been one of the most enjoyable events in the history of the fraternity in Wilmington.

The affair began at 11 o'clock with a splendid minstrel performance given by several "darkies" of exceptional talent and considerable experience, who are appearing at the colored moving picture theatre in the northern part of the city, and this was not the least enjoyable feature of the evening, as the applause indicated. Following the performance an elegant banquet was served by Mr. Joe Starkey, the caterer Just preceding the supper Mr. Percy W. Wells, president of the aerie and master of ceremonies, made a welcome address, in which he mentioned briefly some of the things for which the Eagles stand and gave to those present a most hearty welcome. Mr. Wells made a splendid talk and was warmly congratulated by a number of those present. Mr. Wells has been president of the aerie scarcely two months now, but during that time some 15 or 20 new members have been added and the order is in better condition in every way than it ever was before.

Following the supper several delightful vocal solos were rendered by Mr. Frank Banks, soloist at the Bijou, and Mr. Harry N. Morgan, soloist at the Grand Theatre, both of whom received enthusiastic applause. Mr. Banks sang first and was followed by Mr. Morgan, who sang a song that he composed during the afternoon, entitled, "Eagleism," which struck a tender cord in the hearts of the members of the order assembled. Both Mr. Banks and Mr. Morgan rendered a number of selections, all being received with hearty applause. It was early this morning before the happy affair was declared at an end.

The steamer Benpark, British, sailed for Havre, France, with a cargo of cotton, consisting of 15,850 bales and valued at $831,000 from Alexander Sprunt & Son.

Oyster Roaster at Club.

Members of the Carolina Yacht Club will be pleased to learn that a complete oyster roasting outfit has been installed at the club house and that hereafter delicious oyster roasts may be obtained at any time by 'phoning Mr. Geo. W. Davis, the janitor at No. 695-2. This is an innovation at the club and doubtless the new feature will prove very popular among the members during the Winter season.

THE COLD WAVE.

Freezing Temperature and Snow in Many States Yesterday.

"Alexander's Rag Time."

Mr. Morgan will sing it at The Grand Theatre today. **

..Theatrical..

The Academy offers a big holiday attraction today. It is indeed fortunate in obtaining such a great attraction as "The Thief" for its Thanksgiving Day event, and, no doubt, two large audiences will greet the company, because two performances will be given today. A special matinee will be presented and the company will play again tonight. Seats for the matinee go only to 75 cents, and for tonight up to $1.50. Seats for both performances are now on sale at Plummer's

The press has given the present company lavish praise, and among the recent notices is the following from the Winston-Salem Journal:

"'The Thief' was well produced last night at the auditorium. Barring the first few minutes of the action, there was not a light note, not a single ripple of laughter in it; it is the baring of the soul of a young woman a woman of 'society'—Who stole to keep her husband's love by bedecking herself with fine clothes, which helped to keep her up to the mark—a prettty, shining figure among their friends.

"But Bernstein's play is pretty generally known about, and the large part of the theatre-going public who absented themselves from this production will regret having missed seeing this very capable company. That bugaboo of players—a good play with a poor cast—was what was feared, no doubt, and this accounts for the poor house last night.

"The difficult role of the wife was cleverly handled by Miss Edythe Ketchum.

"Mr. Frank J. Harvey, as the husband, was capable and forceful. Miss Gertrude Allen, with a wonderfully sonorous voice and moving about the stage with pantherine grace, was excellent. Mr. Robert Bennett as Raymond, gave a dignified, effective characterization of the father who is crushed by the supposed dishonor of his son. Mr. Harold Selman as the youth, was quietly forceful and displayed splendid poise and reserve throughout."

At the Bijou.

Wilmington amusement lovers also have much to be thankful for today. They can and should be thankful for such a fine place as the delightful, and ever-popular Bijou, the mecca for what is latest and most wholesome in the amusement line. Today this up-to-the-second theatre will observe Thanksgiving in most joyous way, by affording the Wilmington people one of the greatest and brightest bills ever offered in this city, or anywhere else, for that matter. Besides offering an extra big holiday bill, the Bijou will be found one of the most comfortable of all places, affording a warmth and coziness in the coldest kind of weather. The Bijou management has been particularly clever in the selection of its Thanksgiving Day bill. One of the chief photoplays will be the very expensive "The Hour of Execution," which deals with things in the time of Emperor Tiberius. It is full of thrills. Another big film masterpiece, "Manresa, a Spanish Town" affords valuable information as to Spanish life. Still another is "The Cattle Rustler's Father," which is intensely dramatic. Then there will be several big fun films, and plenty of late and merry music.

Thanksgiving at The Grand.

The management for this glorious Thanksgiving Day has prepared just a little better menu for its patrons than is usually served up and that is saying a great deal. There will be three of the latest and most up-to-date photoplays and the auditorium will be found as comfortable and as cozy as your own fireside. "A Romance of the Sixties," will be found a stirring Southern war picture that will appeal to the patriotism of every Southerner. Then there will be a picture of that great and good man, Abraham Lincoln, whose true worth history is now recording. Then there will be a Pathe Western story of a "Western Postmistress," with a thrill in every scene. It is a mighty interesting and a mighty unusual tale of Western life that will be appreciated. Mr. Morgan will sing as one of the features of today's bill the latest song hit, "Alexander's Rag Time Band." This is the first production of this song at The Grand and the Thanksgiving audiences will appreciate it.

A small piece of sassafras bark will keep dried fruit from worms for years.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CATARRH

The mucous membranes of the nose and throat are exposed to the irritating influence of dust, impure air, etc., and for this reason are the places Catarrh usually first manifests itself. But these are simply exciting causes, the inflammation and discharge being really produced by an impure and vitiated condition of the blood. It is well enough to use some local treatment to cleanse these membranes, but any one can readily see that if the inflammatory matter is left in the blood, such treatment cannot possibly have any permanent effect. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood of all impure catarrhal matter and irritating germs and at the same time builds up the system by its fine tonic effects. When S. S. S. has purified the blood, the mucous surfaces are all nourished and made healthy. There can be no inflammation of the membranes then, because the blood is pure, and every tissue receives nourishment instead of irritating matter. Our book on Catarrh will give proper advice as to what is best to use as a local aid while S. S. S. is purifying the blood. This book is free, also any special advice you may feel you need. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

SKIDDED INTO DITCH.

Sheriff Cowan Has Slight Accident on Turnpike With Auto.

While on his way to his home at Greenville Sound early last night, about 100 yards this side of the intersection of the Masonboro and Wrightsville turnpikes, at the Second Toll House, Sheriff Cowan had the misfortune to "take up" in his automobile in a ditch on the left of the road. Fortunately the machine was under low speed and little damage besides a bent axle wa sdone to the machine. The roads were very wet and slippery and it is thought that Sheriff Cowan's machine skidded and that in attempting to hold the road the front of the machine went into the ditch with him. No one was hurt. A telephone message brought Mr. L. B. Douglass, of the Wilmington Auto Repair Co., with his wrecking apparatus and the machine was brought to the city under its own power.

MINISTERING CIRCLE LUNCHEON A SUCCESS

The opening luncheon in the tea room of Ministering Circle of the King's Daughters, in the building recently vacated by the Wilmington Savings & Trust Company, yesterday was a great success and the patronage was even greater than had been expected. An attractive menu had been provided and the good things were duly appreciated by the many callers.

As today is Thanksgiving Day, the tea room will not be open, but hereafter it will be open to the public every afternoon, and tea and hot chocolate will be served from 4 until 6 o'clock. From the success of the opening luncheon it is evident that the worthy undertaking will receive a hearty support.

The groom is employed in the chief engineer's office of the A. C. L., here, and is a very popular young man. His many friends will be delighted to welcome his bride to the city.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 29.—The police of Greensboro are waging war on the vagrant element of the city and in municipal court today there were 14 negroes indicted under this law and Judge Fure wasn't long in fixing a place where eight of the bunch could do some work for the next 30 days. In four cases judgment was suspended upon promise to go to work and in two cases failure to convict was recorded. The police announce that they will make a strenuous effort to rid the city of this shiftless class of negroes and the word has gone out to them " to get busy or get out."

Chancellor McLean declares the order is now in the most flourishing condition in its history in the State, with prospects for even greater progress during the coming year.

Six special trains passed through Greensboro this morning and , with each was something suggestive of the speed mania. Two carried in palace cars horsemen and horses from Norfolk to Columbia, another consisting of 15 coaches carried aeroplanes, aviators and students to the new United States school of aviation at Augusta, one carried Northern enthusiasts to Savannah for the automobile races and the other two carried good roads delegates and the members of the Girl from the Golden West troupe. All were drawn by the late type passenger engines and all were operated on the fastest schedule possible.

ROCKY MOUNT AFFAIRS

W. C. Horne Given Minimum Fine—Slogan for the City

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 29.—W. C. Horne, the young white man from South Rocky Mount, charged with conducting a lottery, and whose case was postponed several times, was tried at a special term of Recorder's court last night, the result being that the young man was fined $10 and costs. The recorder made this light fine owing to the fact that he was convinced by the evidence that the young man was unaware of the fact that he was breaking the laws of the State.

The committee to select a slogan for Rocky Mount held its final meeting last night to decide out of the 110 slogans which had been sent in, a suitable one. A large assembly gathered in the room, and the reading of the various slogans was first done by City Solicitor Hampton, who presided over the meeting, many of them being extremely amusing, after which each voter was given four choices to select the four best ones. This process was carried out until the number had dwindled down to two and when put to the final vote it was tied, and after much discussion by both factions it was decided to publish the aforesaid two slogans and let the citizens decide which was best. The votes will be sent in on Saturday, and the matter decided some time during the early part of next week. The two selected were: "A Great Future Calls You to Rocky Mount," and "Richer, Righteous Rocky Mount."

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT

White Man Given Preliminary Trial at Lumberton Yesterday

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 29.—What is said by those present to have been the dirtiest and most disgusting trial ever pulled off here was held in the Court House this evening from 6 to 8 o'clock when Richard Britt, a white man, charged with assaulting his 13-year-old stepdaughter, was given a hearing before Justice Rowland. After hearing the evidence the justice ordered the prisoner back to jail to await the next term of criminal court. According to the evidence this is one of the blackest crimes ever committed in the county.

The injunction was granted on the plea of the road that the rate was confiscatory.

CAROLINA IS OFF.

Excellent Prospects for Game With Virginia This Afternoon.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 29.—With her goal line uncrossed by any opponent so far this season, and with one of the brightest prospects for a victory since the famous team of 1905, the Carolina football team left last night for Richmond, where she plays tomorrow her ancient rival, the University of Virginia. The team was given one of the most heart-thrilling send-offs by the student body that this dear old institution has witnessed for many years. The campus echoed and re-echoed with the harmonious yells of over 700 loyal Tar Heel voices. Just as the college bell rang 6 o'clock, and with the band playing "Dixie", the automobiles containing the best team Carolina has had in over half a decade rolled away from in front of the South Building in the direction of Durham. In Durham the team took a special Pullman for Richmond. This year the team is stopping at the Hotel Richmond instead of the Jefferson. The rooters' headquarters will be, however, at the latter hotel.

The record of Carolina for the season of 1911 is as follows:

Carolina 12; Wake Forest 3 (field goal).
Carolina 12; Bingham (Asheville) 0.

Thursday, November 30, 1911.

If we can't get a square deal we are in favor of the round robin.

After all that has been said, how many people "know" Wilmington?

A number of Chinese women have gone to the front to fight, says a cablegram from Peking. All innocent bystanders will probably take to the rear for safety.

The standpatters can be thankful they had their Taft. Consumers can be thankful that they will have a chance to vote in their own interest next November.

Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, has been vindicated. He never bought up any votes. It was his political allies who used the money he furnished to "take care of his interests."

An Atlanta man boasts that he has been married 40 years and has never told his wife a lie. Probably "one look" from her indicated that it was perfectly useless for him to attempt it.

If we can't have any direct commerce for Wilmington via the Panama Canal, we can make this port a coaling station, for all ships going and coming will pass right off the Cape Fear bar.

A Georgia judge has condemned an assault on a baseball umpire as a crime and has punished his assailant accordingly. Baseball is getting to be dangerous to those who want to regulate the umpire.

It is now announced that ex-President Castro of Venezuela has recovered his health. That means that there is considerable more trouble for those who have been hoping that Castro's health was beyond control of the doctors.

It is announced that the socialist administration of Milwaukee has cost the people $1,000,000 more than the political administration used to spend. That is one more blow to the idea that municipalities and States can do business cheaper than individuals.

Virginia has produced 12,000,000 bushels of peanuts this year, so there is no wonder about the success of a certain class of politicians in Norfolk county. By the way, Norfolk and Wilmington, respectively, are the world's greatest peanut markets.

Says the Charlotte Observer: "Working the farms, says an Iowa professor, is the best way to solve the problem of the high cost of living. How stupid that we had not thought of that before." Nevertheless, the plan of some people will continue to be to "work" the farmers.

The Department of Labor and Commerce reports that the women of the United States spent $20,000,000 the past year for perfumery and cosmetics. It is figured out that each woman spent $1 a year on such as that, so, after all, they have not been extravagant in painting their cheeks and making themselves nice. Men spend a great deal more than that for material with which to paint the town.

We used to hear about the cutting of "juicy melons" when large monopolictic enterprises would declare big dividends, but while that was cheerful news to stockholders and bondholders it did not look so good to the exploited public. Somebody has to pay the profits to the fortunate ones and there are so many particulars in which consumers have to be squeezed in order to declare unreasonable dividends that the toll extracted from the average man has become excessive and burdensome. No wonder the cost of living is high.

RAIN AND GOOD ROADS.

The people of Nash and Edgecomb counties got a good object lesson as to the value and utility of good roads on Monday last. November rains came along to put their roads in such condition that the farmers were deterred from venturing forth to meet the Atlantic Coast Line's good roads train at Rocky Mount. The Star's Rocky Mount correspondent mentions that great interest was taken in the good roads lectures and stereopticon views of improved highways, a feature in connection with the Coast Line's demonstration train, but, owing to the rain, the audience and sightseers were town people. Nevertheless, there was keen interest and that is a healthy sign for the live young city of Rocky Mount. The people who braved the inclement weather visited the practical demonstration of road machinery and highway making shown on the magnificently equipped train, and doubtless it left a lasting impression upon those who had the rare privilege.

Good roads trains do not come along every day, and not even every year, so it was unfortunate that the farmers were prevented from seeing what was intended especially for their benefit. Had the surrounding country been covered with fine macadamized highways, well surfaced and well drained, the people in the country would not have minded the rain. Top buggies and carriages, with wraps to keep the individuals from getting wet, would have gone over good roads as easily as if there had been no rain.

In good roads countries, the farmers have really gotten so they "don't mind the weather so the wind don't blow." In New Hanover and Mecklenburg counties, because of good roads, the farmers take advantage of the rainy days to drive to town. Not so many years ago they could not have done so, for mud axle deep and heavy wet sand would have made it well nigh impossible to go a mile in any degree of comfort. However, the rains on a properly built road do not affect it, and barring the personal discomfort of the rain, the ease and rapidity of travel is not interfered with. We know, because we have made rain trips over a good roads country in which a few years back it was difficult to travel, even in the most favorable weather.

To spin along in a trot over a road which was formerly hub deep in mud counts for economy in comfort, time saved, and in wear and tear on animal and vehicle. A mud road, a highway of sand, and an unimproved excuse for a road is an element of expense that bears heavily on agricultural communities. It constitutes the mud tax, the sand tax, and a tax on patience and endurance, and certainly it is a most burdensome tax ramifying in all directions. Taxes of that kind, in loss of time, repairs, and small loads, are enormous. The actual money loss would macadamize every road in America. In the long run it doesn't cost anything to construct good roads, but it is awfully expensive to have unimproved roads. Good roads everywhere demonstrate their economy as well as their utility.

Bad roads are costly to the farmer, and Secretary Wilson, of the United States Agricultural Department, recently advanced the proposition that the "mud tax" is one of the causes of the high cost of living. The American people, he declares, are paying a burdensome mud tax on their daily food, and in good roads he thinks he has discovered something quite effective in the solution of the high cost of living. There is no doubt that bad roads constitute a big part of the expense of every man, woman and child in America, and it follows that if we can effect economy in having good roads, and secure economy in every other particular in which the making of a living or the getting of a living is concerned, we will find a very considerable lifting of the burden. The Secretary is satisfied that if the farmers had better roads for getting their produce to market at less expense and trouble there would be closer relations between the producers and the consumers.

The Secretary took this view at the session of the American Good Roads Congress held recently in Richmond. We observe that he was striking at the cost of delivery, and everybody knows that if we can lower that cost on good roads and by water and rail, it would effect a tremendous saving. In speaking about hauling over either long distances, or even shorter distances, on poor roads, farmers find it unprofitable or impossible to deliver milk, butter, fruits, vegetables, or farm products to the people of the cities, the consequence being that the city dweller has to do without or pay higher prices than would otherwise be the case. For this one reason, the Secretary of Agriculture concludes that as a matter of self preservation, the farmers should become the strongest of all the advocates of good roads building. That is true, for the vital interests of the farmers are involved in more economic and quicker highway transportation.

The Atlantic Coast Line's good roads train is still sweeping through eastern North Carolina. If the weather is good, be sure to meet it and see its impressive exhibit. If the weather is not good, strain a point and endure a little hardship to see a demonstration fraught with tremendous improvement for this country.

FRADULENT DIVIDENDS

The Court of Appeals of New York has rendered a just decision, that, strange enough, has not been handed down before. If such has been the case it has not had much effect and has not attracted any great amount of attention. However, the New York Tribune tells us that the court has held that corporation directors who declare dividends that have not been earned are responsible for losses incurred by persons who have bought stock in the belief that such dividends are the result of profitable business.

That decision is only what could have been expected from a court controlled by common sense and justice. We have not seen the full decision but evidently the court bases its decision on the fact that such dividends are plain evidence of fraud. The declaring of dividends which have not been earned has misled many an investor to take stock in a corporation under the impression that it was not only a solvent but profitable concern. The intention of paying such dividends is to mislead, and monstrous frauds can be committed by the use of such methods. The Tribune, in referring editorially to the decision of the Court of Appeals, remarks:

"No infrequently the persons who declare the unearned dividends do so with a view of unloading their holdings on the deluded public. To make them pay the losses of those who bought stock on what amounts to a false representation of the corporation's financial condition would in a good many instances only be compelling them to disgorge their ill-gotten profits. In the case before the court—a suit against certain former directors of the American Ice Company—this principle of responsibility having been decided, the question goes back to the lower court for trial of the issue whether or not the dividend was unearned. Here is the practical difficulty in the way of innocent purchasers of securities who have been misled through the declaration of unearned dividends. With publicity of corporation finance, or rather its lack of publicity, what it is, it will usually not be easy to prove that dividends were paid out of capital."

It will be found that lax corporation laws, to start with, are responsible for many fraudulent corporations, while inefficient supervision of corporations, or none at all, accounts for the fact that insolvent concerns can go on doing business and causing loss to stockholders. Closer supervision of corporations is the only way to detect the payment of unearned dividends, for fraudulent concerns, by a little book-keeping, can make it appear that dividends have been earned. The business and methods of all corporations should, therefore, be closely and regularly scrutinized by the State or National governments in order to protect the public from deception. Legitimate corporations should welcome such inspection.

COAL PORT POSSIBILITIES

There are three ports south of Hatteras which inevitably must become coal ports when commerce begins to move through the Panama Canal, which even the very latest reports from the work declare will be ready for shipping in twelve or fourteen months. Tuesday's Charleston Post furnishes us a hint of the possibilities of such ports as Wilmington-Southport, Charleton and Savannah. In speaking of Charleston, the Post says:

"Two large cotton-freighted steamers, bound from ports in the Gulf to European destinations, have come into Charleston within the past two weeks to fill their bunkers with coal The British steamer Kaduna, which came in yesterday, stopped at Charleston last year for fuel on a similar voyage and her master was so well pleased with the facility this afforded his sailing that he put into Charleston on his present voyage. Heretofore it has been his custom to go to Norfolk or to Newport News for coal, but he finds that by calling at Charleston he saves two days on his voyage and, besides, avoids the difficulties and dangers of the passage around Hatteras during the stormy Winter season. The same consideration moved the call at Charleston a fortnight ago of another ship loaded with cotton at one of the Gulf ports, and doubtless her experience will result in further calls at this port for fuel and the good results of these voyages will have the effect of moving a general partonage of Charleston's facilities as a coaling port by vessels sailing from the Gulf ports to Europe. These instances give concrete illustration of the advantages offered by Charleston for the coaling of ships and lend particular point to the disposition of certain railroad interests to establish great depots at this port for the handling of coal into bunkers."

The instances mentioned by our esteemed Charleston contemporary refer particularly to shipping from Gulf ports, bound for Europe, hence we see not only the need of coaling stations south of Hatteras for canal shipping but for shipping out of such ports as Galveston, New Orleans, Mobile, Tampa and probably others. The concrete illustration as to Charleston holds good as to Wilmington or Southport or Savannah. There are relative advantages for all of these South Atlantic ports and we have no doubt it will require all of them for the immense commerce which sooner or later must skirt the South Atlantic coast because of the great isthmian waterway.

The wireless banquet is a feast in reason, but is it a banquet?

People who sympathize with the efforts to purify political parties and make them represent the people instead of special interests, should be well wishers of the Progressive Republicans. If the Republicans are to carry this country again it must be admitted by all patriots that its interests will be safer in the hands of that branch of the party which is opposed to exploiting the people to enrich tariff beneficiaries.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We are not kicking for the government to put the trusts and corporations out of business. If it would quit passing laws for their especial benefit it would help matters considerably.—Durham Herald.

Judge Allen may have law behind him in the matter of the Standard Boiler and Machine Company—somehow, the law seems to have taken a habit of too often getting on the wrong side and the present instance is no exception.—Greensboro Record.

Mr. Underwood comes out squarely against the initiative, the referendum and the recall. He takes the same view of the subject that the Times-Union takes. But Mr. Underwood is a candidate for the Presidency and while we would much rather he would represent our view than the opposite, we do not think it was necessary for him to have expressed any opinion on this subject at all. It is a subject that we would like for the Democratic party to let alone. It is not a party question. Individually a number of Democrats and a number of Republicans favor these measures but the platforms of both parties are silent as to them. When Mr. Bryan was candidate for President he declared that he was as much bound by the silence of the platform as by its express declarations, meaning thereby to pledge himself to take no action on questions not mentioned in the platform. If we place Mr. Bryan's construction on silence we conclude that the Democratic party is opposed to the initiative, the referendum and the recall.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Should the example of Mayor Shank of Indianapolis, be followed by the executives of other cities, it will not be long before the chief requisite of a new mayor will be his farming or marketing ability. No word comes from Indianapolis as to the manner in which Mayor Shank is guarding city contracts or cutting down city expenditures. His ability as a marketman, or curbstone produce man, has become, however, the glory of Indiana, even surpassing the fame that once was Albert J. Beveridge's. The 75 turkeys brought into Indianapolis from the country by Mayor Shank and sold by him at the market house are reported to have been snapped up by wealthy as well as poor persons, all of whom were attracted by the offer of gobbler meat at 18 cents a pound. Three hundred milk-fed chickens and 500 pounds of butter, which the mayor announced would be sold at cut-rates, were disposed of, but not so rapidly as the turkeys. Regular poultry dealers were forced to sell their supplies at reduced rates as a result of the mayor's rate war, and to this extent at least the executive's plan was very successful. The question, however, is whether the mayor will be able to continue in his role as public marketman and cut-rate produce merchant. There is no doubt that he is making a big hit in showing what can be done with the middleman's profits eliminated. But how long can he keep it up?—Washington Post.

MOUNT OLIVE NOTES

Social and Personnal Items of Interest—Church Nearing Completion

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., Nov. 29.—The ladies of the Methodist Church last week held a bazaar, the result being a neat sum for the use of the church building which is rapidly nearing completion.

The congregation of the Methodist church here, both station and circuit, are highly gratified to learn from the proceedings of the conference, which has just adjourned at Kinston that Revs. W. C. Merritt and J. J. Boone will return to their same charges here.

Mr. Council S. Wooten spent last week in Raleigh at the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Sanderlin, who is seriously ill——There are several handsome residences being erected in Mount Olive which will be completed before the Spring——Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Oliver and daughter, Miss Lois, will leave in a week or two for Fort Lauderdale and other points in Florida where they will spend the Winter.

The splendid Baptist church is nearing completion and will be dedicated in the early Spring of next year. And it will be a source of great pleasure to his many friends in this section, where he spent his boynood days, to know that Rev. Will B. Oliver, now of Florence, S. C., has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Mount Olive Baptist church.

Although yesterday and today have been cloudy, rainy and "blustering," a few days ago an optimist was heard singing:

"All the world am bright and sunny,
When I got my arms around my honey,
Anywheree is hom, sweet home."

The home of Mr. James A. Westbrook was brightened a few days ago by the arrival of a ten and one-half pound boy, who is expected to remain with them one and twenty years.

Several from Mount Olive and this section are in Goldsboro this week as witnesses and jurors in the Superior Court, which convened last Monday for a two-weeks' term with Judge Peebles presiding.

Recent rumors are to the effect that the Bell Lumber Company, Inc., has been dissolved and the property and assets divided among the several stockholders. This corporation was organized about 12 years ago by Mr. John R. Bell and as a successor to the firm of Reaves & Bell, Mr. Wilson having since that time operated a saw mill alone. The Bell Lumber Co., has been a splendid factor in the upbuilding of our rapidly-growing little city during the last decade.

Do your best—then try to make the best of it.

PEARL BABB'S PRECIOUS ADVICE

Sebrell Lady Tells of Her Own Experience, and Gives Some Good Advice to All Women.

Sebrell, Va.—Mrs. Pearl L. Babb, of this place, says: "My health was very bad for two years, because of womanly troubles. At times I suffered with dreadful pains in my side, and I had awful dizzy spells. When I had these, I could not even sit up.

My mother called in three different doctors for me, but none of them did me much good. I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now my health is greatly improved. I can do my work as I always did before I was sick, and never mind it.

Cardui is the best remedy for all of woman's ills. I know what it will do, for I have tried it, and I always expect to keep it in my house.

I always advise ladies who suffer with womanly troubles like I did, to take Cardui and get well."

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients that gently strengthen the womanly constitution, and build up health and strength in a natural manner.

For more than 50 years Cardui has been used with entire satisfaction by thousands of sick and suffering women. Testimony from those who have actually used Cardui surely indicates the value of this reliable woman's remedy.

Don't you think so?

TODAY IS THANKSGIVING DAY

Special Services Will Be Held at Various Churches—Many Other Pleasant Features Will Feature the Holiday

Carrying out a custom which is ages old and had its foundation shortly after the dauntless Pilgrims had established permanent homes on the rock-bound New England coasts, today will be observed throughout the Nation as Thanksgiving Day and a mighty people will on bended knees return thanks to an almighty God for the blessing that have been bestowed upon them during the year that is drawing to a close.

In Wilmington the day will be one of relaxation and rest from the cares and strife of the workday world and the citizens will generally spend the hours in attending the church services or in some mode of recreation, for which the opportunities are numerous. Practically all business will be at a standstill for the day and many business houses and offices will not open their doors at all.

Weather indications, at a late hour last night, were for almost an ideal Thanksgiving Day, with a clear, crisp and bracing tang in the salt breeze which sweeps in from the broad Atlantic so near by. As many people will spend their Thanksgiving Day in the outdoors this first essential will go far towards insuring a most pleasant time.

In practically all of the churches in the city special services will be held, and special Thanksgiving music will be rendered at a number of them. Among the services are the following:

The annual Thanksgiving service and sermon at St. James' Episcopal church at 10 o'clock this morning. The offering in money will be sent to the Thompson Orphanage at Charlotte. The contribution of foods, fruits, etc., will be distributed in the hospital and among others in the city.

There will be a Thanksgiving service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure. The collection will be for the Barium Springs Orphanage.

Thanksgiving service will be held at the Fifth Street Methodist church this morning at 11 o'clock. There will be preaching by the pastor, Rev. G. T. Adams. Every member of the church is invited to be present and join heartily in rendering thanks unto God for His great goodness unto us. Every one is requested to take a thanksgiving offering for the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh.

A special Thanksgiving Day service will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Sixth and Market streets, this morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Dev. Dr. W. A. Snyder, will preach on "Our Blessings," and the music and decorations will be appropriate to the day. As usual the offering will be sent to the Lutheran Orphans' Home, at Salem, Va., where Southern Lutherans care for their homeless children. The congregation extends a cordial invitation to both the churchless and to the strangers in the city to join in a service of praise and thanksgiving.

At Bladen Street Methodist church there will be a Thanksgiving service at 11 o'clock this morning, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Rexford.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Market and 17th streets, at 11 A. M. All are invited.

In addition to the religious features of the day there are many outdoor events and pastimes that will furnish diversion and pleasure to hundreds. For one thing, out at League Park, at 3:30 o'clock, the pick of all the gamy youngsters of two of the State's high schools will meet in a battle for the gridiron supremacy when the Wilmington and Raleigh elevens clash for honors. The local team has not suffered defeat this year and they are expecting to add another victory to their list today. Both teams are in the pink of condition and both are equally confident of winning, so it is evident that the game will be a hard fought one from start to finish. It is expected that the attendance will be one of the largest that has ever attended a football contest in this city.

Members of the Cape Fear Country Club will meet at the club grounds for their annual golf tournament, oyster roast and luncheon and will spend a delightful day in the open. The tournament is cheduled to start shortly after 10 o'clock this morning and two handsome cups will be awarded the winners of the events.

An excursion will be run over the W. B. & S. road to Southport and it is likely that many citizens will take advantage of the opportunity and run down to see the picturesque little seaport city at the mouth of the Cape Fear.

Another feature of the day will be the opportunity for a hunt, and many nimrods will invade the surrounding country in pursuit of quail, squirrel, ducks and turkey. Hunting is good this season and it is probable that some good bags will be made. A shooting match at Greenfield this morning will also occupy the attention of those who love firearms and many will doubtless try their skill.

The Salvation Army, as always, has been working to provide something for the worthy poor of the city, and it will distribute a number of baskets of good things to families in needy curcumstances. It will also provide a dinnner for the poor boys of the city and about 100 juveniles will enjoy the excellent spread at the hall on Market street this evening at 6 o'clock.

Thanksgiving Day promises to be one full of enjoyment for everyone in Wilmington and hundreds will no doubt spend the time pleasantly in one way or another.

Short Session Yesterday.

Only a few cases came up for trial in the Recorder's court yesterday morning and the session did not occupy a great deal of time. Rosa and Cora Murphy, both colored, were tried on a charge of an affray. They were found guilty and taxed the costs. Joe Johnson and Pearl Gillam, two other negroes, also faced a charge of indulging in an affray and they likewise were taxed the costs. McDougal Bently, a white man, was found guilty of trespassing and was assessed the costs. One pre-Thanksgiving drunk contributed the usual amount.

PRESENTED GOLD WATCH.

Associates at Coast Line Honor Mr. Champ McD. Davis.

As a mark of the high esteem in which he is held and a reminder that it is with regret that they see him leave Wilmington, Mr. Champ McD. Davis, who left yesterday for Savannah, Ga., to assume the duties of the new position in the Atlantic Coast Line service to which he was promoted some few days ago, was presented a handsome gold watch by those who have been associated with him in the general offices here. Mr. R. N. Nash made the presentation spech and Mr. Davis accepted the handsome present with a feeling little talk expressing his unbounded appreciation of the thoughtfulness and regard which had prompted the giving. His many associates here, as well as the host of friends in the city and elsewhere, regret very much to see Mr. Davis leave Wilmington, but they rejoice in the promotion which his ability and loyalty have won for him.

At the Cape Fear Club Tuesday evening a stag dinner was given in honor of Mr. Davis. Covers were laid for fourteen. Several talks were made and the speakers all expressed regret at his departure, at the same time heartily congratulating him upon his deserved good fortune.

The company was recently granted a charter by the Secretary of State to build and operate a marine railway and conduct machine shops. The authorized capital stock is $125,000, with $34,000 subscribed by James Sprunt, 50 shares; C. W. Worth, 100; L. H. Skinner, 100; H. C. McQueen, 10; Jas. S. Williams, 50; George Rountree, 10; J. W. Harper, 10; W. H. Chadbourn, 10. The company will operate a marine railway and machine shops at the foot of Church street.

FOOTBALL CONTEST TODAY

Wilmington and Raleigh High School Elevens to Play for Championship of State at League Park.

There are a great many persons in Wilmington who fairly delight in witnessing a stubborn gridiron contest who found it inconvenient to attend either of the great games in Virginia today, but will most likely be at League Park this afternoon to see the game between the Wilmington and Raleigh High School elevens. On the issue of the game depends the State championship among the high schools and both sides will put forth every effort to win.

Wilmington will be represented by eleven men who have been developed into one of the best teams that ever battled for the Orange and Black. They have not lost a game this season and have been scored on only one time.

In Capt. Burnett the High School has one of the best football players in scholastic athletics. His all-round brilliancy placed him on the all-State eleven of 1910, and his work this Fall surpasses even the remarkable record of last year. Another all-State star of 1910 is Charlie Taylor, who is acknowledged to be one of the classiest ends in the State. Houston, Hall and Williams have shown marked progress during the course of the season and are now worthy teammates of Burnett and Taylor. Tackle positions will be held down in masterly style by C. Burnett and Meier. Shaw, Fryar, Penny and Herring are all capable men and are still fighting for two guards. Wells, a good man of last year, is a stronger and steadier man this year. Monroe of last year's squad has developed wonderfully and is a close second to the dashing Taylor. In the substitutes, Stone, Hashagen, Silverman, Johnson and Smith Mr. Shaw, the coach, has a string of efficiency emergency men. Too much cannot be said of the untiring efforts of Coach Shaw to turn out a championship team.

The other bidders for championship honors arrived last night, 15 strong. They came in quietly, but left the impression that they were all here. They make up a good fighting machine, led by the redoubtable Riddick. Jeffrey at quarter, is a sensation. Champion and Williamson are magnificent backs. Novies, Smith and Robbins are central powers. Denton, all-State tackle, and Beckwith are strong, fast, aggressive linemen. Crinkley, Batchelor and Stell at end are in the game all the time. Campbell and Oldham are reliable substitutes.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. The Tidewater Power Company will give a 15-minute schedule from 2:30 until 3:30 o'clock. Special football cars will be operated, as the regular beach cars will not stop at League Park. The High School students will attend in a body. Admission is 25 cents.

DOCTOR PAUL MEDICINE CO.

Charter Has Been Applied for a New Enterprise for Wilmington—Will Manufacture Drugs and Patent Medicines

Articles of incorporation of the Doctor Paul Medicine Company were sent to Raleigh last night by Chas. C. Loughlin, Esq., as attorney, and it is expected that the Secretary of State will grant a charter for the enterprise tomorrow. The object of the company is to manufacture drugs and patent medicines and will have its plant and office in Wilmington. The authorized capital stock will be $100,000, but will begin business on $40,000, which has been subscribed by those applying for the charter.

The following are the subscribers to shares and the amount held by each: Mr. E. G. Bulluck, 40,000 shares; Mr. E. L. Moore, Dr. N. W. Tipton, Dr. Paul Fiezgerald, the latter of Selma, five each.

The leading spirit in the enterprise is Mr. Bulluck, who will probably have the management of the company. He has been with Ahrens Bros., wholesale druggists, as traveling salesman for the past two or three years, coming from Raleigh. He has formulas for two or three different kinds of patent medicines, which he will place upon the market as soon as the business is started. The company has not yet secured a location, but several places are under advisement.

The charter will provide among other things that the company may "carry on the business of chemists, druggists, chemical manufacturers, importers, exporters, manufacturers and dealers in chemical, pharmaceutical, medicinal and other preparations and chemicals, either by wholesale or retail, or both, and to manufacture, buy, sell and deal in mineral waters, fountain drinks, wines cordials etc."

Wilmington will gladly welcome the new enterprise, which promises to do a splendid business, as it is said that the preparations which will be put up by the company will find a ready sale.

MR. JESSE REYNOLDS DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday at Home on Front Street—Funeral.

Many friends will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Jesse L. Reynolds, which occurred at his home, No. 1021 South Front street, yesterday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock, following a brief illness of pneumonia. Mr. Reynolds was only in his 21st year and was a young man of sterling worth, having many friends in this city and section. He is survived by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reynolds, of this city, his father and mother.

The remains will be carried to Brunswick county early this morning on a private boat and the interment will be made in the family burying ground in that county.

LOCAL BANKS GET BONDS

Southern National and Atlantic Trust & Banking Co., Purchase $400,000 Worth of City Bonds, Making Best Offer.

Pursuant to advertisement, bids were opened yesterday at noon in the office of the city clerk and treasurer for the remaining $400,000 worth of municipal water and sewerage and street improvement bonds of the $900,000 issue voted some years ago, and the City Council, called in special session a few moments later, accepted the proposal of the Southern National Bank, of this city, to purchase $300,000 worth and the offer of the Atlantic Trust & Banking Company, also of this city, to buy $100,000 worth.

The banks offer a premium of $10 on the $100,000, or $40 on the $400,000, with accrued interest from January 1st, 1912, date of issue, to date of delivery, and will pay 4 per cent. interest on the money deposited with them. Members of the Council feel that they have disposed of the bonds to good advantage as the interest on the amount will range from $6,000 to $12,000 before it can possibly be used for the purposes for which the bonds were voted. The other banks of the city submitted proposals, which would have been considered attractive had they also offered to pay interest on the bond money deposited with them. There were no out-of-town bidders. The bonds are to run for 40 years and bear interest at the rate of 4 1-2 per cent. per annum.

Bids were opened at noon by the city clerk and treasurer, Capt. Thos. D. Meares, and in attendance were Mayor Smith and all members of the Council; representatives of the local banks, Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National, and the Atlantic Trust & Banking Co.; Mr. W.B. Cooper, president of the American National Bank; Mr. J. V. Grainger, vice president of the Murchison National Bank; Mr. Chas. E. Taylor, Jr., president of the Wilmington Savings & Trust Co.; Mr. F. W. Dick, vice president of the People's Savings Bank; Mr. J. A. Taylor, vice president of the Southern National Bank; Mr. George Rountree, and Mr. W. S. Glenn, of the Security Trust Co., of Spartanburg, S. C. The latter did not put in a bid for his company, evidently feeling that the local banks were in position to make an acceptable offer for the bonds.

The Southern National Bank offered to purchase $300,000 worth at par, "accrued interest from January 1st, 1912, to date of delivery, and a premium of $30, this offer," the proposal read, "subject to the condition that the funds arising from the sale of the said $300,000 bonds will be deposited with this bank at 4 per cent. interest under security acceptable to the city, and to be withdrawn upon demand as necessary to meet expenditures of the city in the prosecution of the work for which the bonds are authorized." The Atlantic Trust & Banking Company make practically the same offer for $100,000 worth of the bonds, the amount of the premium being $10.

The Murchison National Bank, Wilmington Savings & Trust Company, the Peoples Savings Bank, acting jointly, offered $400,301 for the issue of $400,000, a premium of $301, and accrued interest from date of issue to date of delivery, with the understanding and provision that until used the proceeds for the sale of said bonds shall be ratably and proportionately deposited, without interest, with the three banks.

The American National Bank repeated its offer as submitted when bids were opened about ten days ago, that is, the institution offered to pay on January 1st, 1912, $400,885 in cash for the bonds, provided all funds were deposited with the bank in the commercial department until they may be used by the city for the particular purpose for which they are needed, but bearing no interest. One paragraph in the proposal was with regard to the deposit of the money derived from the sale of the bonds as follows: "In case the bid of any other bank or banks in this city is higher than our bid, we hereby release any moral or legal claim we may have to any part of theses particular funds and in case our bid is higher than the bid of any other bank or banks in this city, we presume they will release any claims they may have to part of these funds."

Immediately after opening the bids, the Council convened in special session in the Mayor's office. It took the body but a few minutes to see that the best offers were those submitted by the Southern National and the Atlantic Banking & Trust Co., and made the award accordingly.

INTER-SCHOLASTIC CONTEST

Wilmington High School Represented by Mr. Gray Hicks

Mr. Gray Hicks left last night for Durham, where tomorrow night he will represent the Wilmington High School in the inter-scholastic declamation contest, having been chosen in the preliminary contest held at the High School yesterday morning. The contest will be between representatives from high schools in North and South Carolina and Virginia. Mr. Hicks represented the High School last year and came dangerously near winning the first prize, securing second honors. His friends expect him to do equally as well this year and he probably will walk away with first honors. Mr. John J. Blair, superintendent of the city schools, is in Raleigh attending the educational meeting and will probably go down to Durham for the contest.

COLORED METHODISTS MEET

Annual Conference of A. M. E. Zion Church Began Yesterday at St. Luke's Church—Welcome Addresses Tonight.

(By Geo. F. King.)

With an unusual amount of enthusiasm over the success for the year's work that they are completing and will report for at this conference, hundreds of ministers and delegates entered St. Luke's A. M. E. church yesterday morning to attend the opening session of the 48th annual session of the North Carolina Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church, Bishop Alex. Walters, D. D., presiding. The conference was opened at 10 o'clock with the usual devotional exercises. The Bishop has been and is still criticised by certain elements of his race because he is a factor in the political campaigns of recent years in the North and other sections of the country and has led the movement to swing thousands of negro voters in line for the Democratic party, especially in the doubtful States. He claims that the negro must make friends with the Southern white man and work together for the South's best interests.

After the roll call the conference immediately went into organization and various committees were appointed. This denomination has a number of departments that are supported by general claims. This feature of the activities of the church makes it a success along many lines because of its ability to govern and support its own affairs and become one of the potent factors in the development of the people for whom its efforts are particularly directed. The reports being for the connectional claims reveal the zeal and loyalty of thousands of members in this conference's district to keep up the claims of the various departments such as for education, missions at home and in Africa; church extension and the sustaining of the commendable publishing house at Charlotte where all the Sunday School and other literature and the official organ of the church are published.

The afternoon session was devoted wholly to business. The committee on rules made its report. Last night every seat in the church was filled by 8 o'clock, by an appreciative audience who heard the annual sermon by Rev. R. H. Sawyer. The Holy Communion was administered by the bishop. Every member of the conference is looking forward with unusual interest to the Episcopal address by the bishop at the afternoon session because his utterances are always significant owing to the decided stand that he has taken relative to what steps his race should take, especially along lines that he says that the negro will prove to the white man of the South that he is his friend and will work side by side with him, too, for the South's best interest.

Tonight the local programme will be a strong attraction as Councilman P. Q. Moore will deliver a welcome address on the part of the city. The other speakers are Drs. Geo. D. Carnes, J. A. Bonner, Laura J. Nixon, S. Jervay, M. E. Swett, R. A. Howard, of the city, and the responses will be made by Hon. J. C. Dancy, Revs. J. W. McDonald, E. S. W. Simmons, S. D. Conrad and R. A. H. Carroll.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING NOT SOLD

However, Several Offers for Structure Have Been Made

Through General Secretary J. B. Huntington the directors of the Y. M. C. A. last night denied a report that was current during the day that the association's building, corner Front and Grace streets, had been sold to Mr. Geo. O. Gaylord, for $50,000, but admitted that this sum had been offered by Mr. Gaylord. It was also stated that this was only one of several offers that have been received for the building during the past few days. The offer of Mr. Gaylord, who, it appears has several other persons associated with him in the proposed purchase, was submitted to the trustees and directors in session Tuesday night, but was not acted upon. However, it is thought probable that the directors will make a sale of the property within the next ten days or two weeks to Mr. Gaylord or to some one who may make a better offer. It is understood that Mr. Gaylord would convert the building into a hotel if he should secure the property. The Y. M. C. A. expects to build a new home.

A pretty home wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends in this city and elsewhere was celebrated at 6:15 o'clock last night at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. C. O. Knox, No. 620 Red Cross street, when Miss Sadie Knox, daughter of Mr. James H. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist Church. The bride was becomingly attired in white embroidered marquisette over messaline and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Bessie Melton was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The best man was Mr. W. C. Stone. THE RED CROSS STAMPS FINDING READY SALE.

Since the Red Cross Christmas seals were put on sale in this city some days ago the results have been very gratifying and hundreds of the neat little labels have been sold. The Red Cross Society acknowledges with thanks the interest manifested by the public in the purchase of the stamps and it urges the merchants to use them on all bills sent out on the 1st of December. It also requests all individuals to put the stamps on all mail sent out from now until January 1st and on all Christmas presents and packages. The cost is trivial yet the money obtained goes far in the great battle that is being waged to stamp out the disease of tuberculosis.

This matter is one of vital importance to everyone, as the Red Cross nurse visits each and every case, both white and colored, ministering to their needs and educating them up to the rules of prevention and cure. The Red Cross Society, the press, the pulpit and every other organization or profession is rallying to the fight and all recognize the importance of the battle. All join in urging everyone to enlist in the crusade and lend their efforts to stamping out consumption by purchasing Red Cross Christmas seals.

On a little circular which is distributed by the Red Cross Society the following are given as reasons why one should join the fight:

"Because one death in every ten in your locality is caused by tuberculosis.

"Because every seal you buy will be used to fight consumption in your community.

"Because tuberculosis cannot be stamped out unless you do your part."

MYERS-KLEIN NUPTIALS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

A beautiful and impressive home wedding was that yesterday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock when Mr. Leslie Eugene Myers and Miss Louis Clara Klein plighted their troth at the suburban home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Klein, on Pauline avenue and Princess boulevard, in East Wilmington. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and the pretty service was witnessed by quite a company of friends from the city and suburbs.

The cozy parlor was beautifully decorated with Southern smilax, potted plants and chrysanthemums and the hall and dining room corresponded in the attractive scheme for the happy occasion. The wedding music was charmingly rendered by Miss Marguerette Mills, who presided at the piano. While Miss Mills deftly played the ever-lovely "Bridal Chords" from Lohegrin, the bridal party entered and presented themselves before a floral altar, where the gordian knot was tied by Dr. McClure with a ring service that was impressively sweet.

Miss Ester Hortense Klein, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor, and the best man was Dr. Frank E. Thayer, of Chadbourn.

The bride was attired in a modish coat suit of blue broadcloth with hat and gloves to match, and carried an exquisite shower bouquet of Bride's roses and maiden hair ferns. When the bans had been pronounced, amidst the inspiring tones of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," the happy young couple held a brief reception, during which they were extended the joyous felicitations of the assembled friends and relatives.

Dainty refreshments and punch were served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Myers were accompanied to the union station, where they departed on the 3:15 P. M. Atlantic Coast Line train for a Southern tour. Their bridal tour will include Jacksonville, Tampa and Montgomery, and in ten days they expect to return and reside in this city.

Mr. Myers formerly was of Fredericksburg, Va., but is now connected with the transportation department of the Atlantic Coast Line, headquarters in this city. His bride is a great favorite among a wide circle of friends who will be pleased that the couple will make their residence in Wilmington.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Glasgow, No. 319 South Second street, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, a quiet but beautiful wedding ceremony was celebrated when their attractive daughter, Miss Grayce Adalia Glasgow, became the bride of Mr. Marcus Wright Player, of Bishopville, S. C., Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church, performing the ceremony.

The home, under the skilled touch of Mr. Will Rehder, the florist, had been transformed into a bower of flowers, and presented a charming picture throughout. Quite a number of friends and relatives were present at the pretty ceremony and they were received at the door by Misses Ruth Adams, of Winston-Salem; Louise Sholar, May Hall and Lula Morrell, close friends of the bride.

To the inspiring strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, softly rendered by Miss Cannie Chasten, the bridal party approached the altar as follows:

First the little ribbon bearers, Misses Sarah Elizabeth Gully and Helen Foster, followed by Miss Daisy Lee Glasgow, the younger sister of the bride, bearing the ring in a snow-white rose bud. Next came Miss Maude Glasgow, the maid of honor, dressed in a cream-colored creation and wearing large white picture hat, carrying a bouquet of pink roses. She was followed by the groom with his brother, Mr. W. C. Player, of Darlington, S. C., the best man, and they were followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. She wore a dark blue traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and carried a lovely bouquet of Bride's roses.

Following the ceremony the happy couple were driven to the union station, where they were showered with the congratulations of a large number of friends accompanied by the usual baptisms of rice. They took the afternoon train for Bishopville, S. C., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Player is a very popular young woman and has a host of friends in the city. She has held a position with the Wilmington Iron Works for some time and among the many handsome presents received was a chest of silver, the gift of the employes of that company. The groom is an energetic young business man of Bishopville, S. C., being general manager of the Player Furniture Company at that place.

It is with much regret that Mrs. Player's many friends see her leave Wilmington, but they will look forward to her frequent visits here with pleasure.

PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

A beautiful and impressive wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock at St. James' Episcopal church, when Miss Annette Claypole Munds, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Munds, became the bride of Mr. Walter Merritt Kenly, of Baltimore, Md., Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, the rector, officiating. A large number of friends and relatives were present to witness the charming service.

The chancel of the church was lighted by many candles and presented a very appropriate setting for the happy event. Prof. Geo. L. Johnson, organist at St. James', presided at the organ and rendered Mendelssohn's "Wedding March", as the bridal party marched down to the altar, and as the procession filed out of the church "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin.

Miss Bessie Duke Loder was maid of honor and Mr. Wm. M. Peck was best man. The ribbon girls were little Misses Margaret Thorp and Sue Lovering. The ushers were Messrs. Jas. T. Munds, Brown McKoy, Robert Cantwell and Marion James.

To the inspiring strains of the "Wedding March," the little ribbon girls led the way down the aisle followed by the bride's maid, wearing pink crepe de chine and carrying a beautiful bouquet of pink Killarney roses. On the arm of her father, Mr. Wm. C. Munds, the bride followed, dressed in a creation of white crepe meteor trimmed in duchesse lace and wearing a tulle veil clasped with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white bride's roses and lilies of the volley, and never looked lovelier in her life. Mr. Kenly and his best man entered from the vestry room and met the bride and her father at the altar, where under the soft light of the candles they took the marriage vows. The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony of the Episcopal Church was used.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Munds, No. 808 Market street, where a reception was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kenly. A large number of friends called and showered upon the young people their felicitations and best wishes for every measure of happiness and material prosperity for the future. The home was beautifully decorated in cut flowers, potted plants and Southern smilax, the attractive scheme being carried out in every detail. Delicious refreshments and punch were served. Miss Alice Wright presided at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenly left on the 7 P. M. northbound train for Baltimore, where they will make their future home. The bride is one of the most popular young women of the city and has a host of friends who regret to see her leave. They will look forward with pleasure to her visits here in the future. Mr. Kenly is a promising young business man of Baltimore and has many friends in this city also.

The bride and groom received a large number of beautiful and costly presents of cut glass, silver, china, etc., which testified most eloquently to the high regard in which they are held by their many friends.

Coffee Goodness Proven by a Century of Use

There is something wonderfully satisfying and fascinating about this coffee blend that has been in daily use for over a century. Something far different from ordinary coffees. This is the coffee that was served in the quaint French Market, New Orleans, to society belles and beaux of the olden time. And that was so liked by Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay and other famous men. It is today the same identical, deliciously aromatic blend that was famous over a hundred years ago.

Then you could get this coffee with a history—the real

French Market Coffee

only at the French Market, New Orleans. But NOW you all may serve it daily at your own table. For the old French Market blend is perpetuated by and delivered everywhere in perfect aroma and strength in hermetically sealed tins. Injurious elements are roasted out of French Market Coffee. In New Orleans, for hundreds of years, it has always been the custom to drink cup after cup, even at midnight. You may do the same today. Be sure you get the genuine. "There is only one real old French Market flavor."

The Same Unique Hygienic Roasting Process

STEADIER TONE IN COTTON

Imparted by Foreign Buying—Offerings Became Heavier Later in Day—South a Large Seller. Spot Dull.

New York, November 29.—Foreign buying imparted rather a steadier tone to the cotton market during today's early trade, but offerings became heavier late in the day, apparently on rumors of large ginning returns and the close was easy, at a net loss of 2@8 points. The opening was steady, at an advance of 1@4 points, in sympathy with better cables than expected and on covering, which probably promoted Southern offerings in Liverpool.

There seemed to be quite a good many overnight selling orders around the ring, and prices broke to a net loss of 1@4 points right after the call, but the decline was checked by a good demand from houses with foreign connections in connection with covering for over the holiday tomorrow, and the market later steadied up to about, or a shade over the closing figures of last night.

Most of the foreign buying was believed to be against sales in Liverpool, and after the close of the Liverpool market the support from that source was withdrawn. This was not followed by any immediate weakness, and the market during the early afternoon was very quiet, but in the last hours offerings became heavier, with the South quite a large seller here, and with local bears more aggressive not only because of the appearance of Southern selling orders, but on rumors that preliminary returns to the National ginners are to be published on Friday, would make a bearish showing. Closing prices were at practically the lowest point of the day, and while the winter months were about 5 points up from the low records of yesterday, later deliveries were very close to the lowest of the season.

Bad weather was reported in the South, after the rain or snow of the preceding day, and private advices indicated that ginning was being retarded, but on the whole weather conditions are considered to be fairly favorable for ginning operations during the present period, or between November 14th and December 1st.

Receipts at all ports today, 85,000 bales, against 87,704 last week and 88,035 last year. For the week, 475,000 bales, against 481,761 last week and 438,567 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 15,908, against 39,858 last year, and at Houston, 20,502, against 10,083 last year.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, November 29 — Pequot wide sheetings were reversed to a basis of 25 cents for 1/4 goods during the day. Other revisions of bleached cottons are pending. The gray goods markets are steady and quiet. Carpet agents have done a very fair spring business, the larger mills being well provided with new orders. Jobbing trade was quiet for the day.

STOCK TRADING GAVE WAY

Apparently Caused by Work of Professional Traders—Restriction Because of Thanksgiving Holiday—Bonds.

New York, November 29.—Traders were bearish today and stocks gave way. The pressure on the market could not be attributed to any unfavorable influence from without, for the day was barren of events bearing directly enough upon security values. Apparently it was the work of professional traders who, taking advantage of the general reluctance to buy stocks at this time, attacked the market. This unwillingness to buy was due largely to the fact that Congress is to meet on Monday and that the President's message, taking up the trust question, is soon to be read. Business was restricted also because of the holiday tomorrow. As a result of the heavy selling of the week, the short interest is believed to have been enlarged considerably, and for a time today it appeared as though the bears had overreached themselves. A quick bull movement after the opening in a number of stocks in which there was a vulnerable short interest, sent up prices quickly. But the bulls did not possess sufficient strength to maintain their advantage and the list sold off again. The attack upon the market was continued until some of the active issues showed losses of two points or more from yesterday's close.

Moderate covering in the last hour reduced losses.

Call money rose to 6 per cent. today, as compared with 3 1/2 at the close yesterday. This rate is the highest of the year. It was the opinion of bankers that with the month end needs satisfied, the market will become easier and that there was no reason to look for anything in the nature of stringency. Financial resources are regarded as ample.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,646,000. United States bonds, unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 601,900 shares.

DON'T WAIT

Take Advantage of a Wilmington Citizen's Experience Before It's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache,
Don't wait until backache becomes chronic;
Till serious kidney troubles develop;
Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Profit by a Wilmington citizen's experience.

Mrs. W. W. Minse, 712 Vollers St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I received from their use. For a long time kidney trouble clung to me and I was caused great annoyance by the kidney secretions. My back ached and I did not seem to get a minute's peace. Some days I was hardly able to move around to attend to my work. At last I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Bellamy's Drug Store and they restored me to good health." (Statement given February 24, 1908.)

Always Effective.

Mrs. Mince was interviewed on December 27, 1910, and she said: "I can still speak highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and recommend them as being good for kidney trouble. During the past two years I have taken this remedy and it has always had a prompt and beneficial effect."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

AUTHOR TO GET DIVORCE.

Provided Court Approves Recommendations of Referee.

New York, November 29.—Upton Sinclair, the author and socialist, will get his divorce from his wife, Meta F. Sinclair, if the court approves the recommendation made today by Referee W. S. Kelley, who has been taking testimony in the case since October 23.

With the recommendation for an interlocutory decree went the referee's report of the testimony, containing interesting details of life at Arden, the summer camp of the Sinclair colony, while Harry Kemp, the Kansas poet and co-respondent in the case, was a dweller there with other literary people.

Ellen Barrows, stenographer for Sinclair, testified that Kemp was in company with Mrs. Sinclair almost all the time he was at Arden, and they frequently took long walks together. Once, she said, Mrs. Sinclair remarked to her on Kemp: "He makes me happy; he has the most beautiful I ever knew."

Miss Barrows, in describing the living quarters of the Arden camp, said that Mrs. Sinclair lived in the "big house" and her husband lived in the "little house," about a city block distant; but when Kemp came to Arden they changed abodes, and Kemp pitched his tent near the "little house."

Visits by Mrs. Sinclair and Kemp to New Jersey coasts were testified by other witnesses.

Sinclair himself testified that he had introduced Kemp to his wife three years ago in Battle Creek, Mich. The author said Kemp had manifested an interest in Mrs. Sinclair, but later when they came East, he said that Kemp had given assurances that his friendship for Mrs. Sinclair was purely platonic.

It appeared by the report that Mrs. Sinclair's attorney moved to dismiss the suit on the ground that Sinclair had condoned his wife's acts.

In denying the motion, the referee said:

"It is true that the husband is regarded as the protector of his wife, but I hardly think the most ardent advocate of the female side of the proposition would insist that the husband should devote his whole time to the protection of his wife. The only weapon that he is permitted to use in this enlightened age is moral suasion, a weapon of but little effect in these days of barometric depression of the marital ether, and occasioned by those so-called affinity storms."

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION.

And Three Trials Possibilities of McNamara Trial Last Night.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—Three trials and a grand jury investigation all at once were the known possibilities of the McNamara murder trial tonight when court adjourned for Thanksgiving until Friday. One more talesman was selected. He was S. W. Stewart, a farmer, who came from Logansport, Ind.

Bert H. Franklin, chief of the special investigators employed by counsel for McNamara, was arraigned on a charge of bribery of a veniremen with Henry T. Gage, formerly governor of California, and once minister to Portugal as counsel. Gage said the effort to have an immediate preliminary hearing was a political plot and threatened to leave the case. He obtained an extension of two days, instead of ten, for which he asked.

The trial of H. B. Connor, A. B. Maple and F. Ira Bender, accused of attempting to dynamite the hall of records, is set for December 11th and a grand jury will be asked to investigate further into the Franklin case soon.

In the arraignment of Franklin on the charge of bribing, George N. Lockwood, an unsubpoenaed juryman, attracted more interest than anything else.

Attorney Gage, retained as Franklin's counsel, protested when Assistant District Attorney Ford asked for a formal hearing on Friday.

"In that event the defendant will have to get other counsel," he declared. "I came into this case only this morning. I have other duties. Tomorrow is a holiday. I never have been treated with so little consideration before in my life."

"We do not ask counsel for the defense to have a full hearing at that time," said Ford. "All we wish is to put one or two witnesses on the stand. Then the defense can have a postponement if it wishes."

It was reported that this preliminary hearing was desired as affording information which would justify the calling of a grand jury at an early date. On the other hand, Attorney Gage pronounced it an effort to prejudice the election prospects of Job Harriman, attorney for the McNamara defense, who is candidate for mayor on the Socialist ticket, at an election to be held on December 5th.

Walker, the negro condemned to die on the gallows here today, but who escaped from officers last night, is yet at large. He was handcuffed securely when he escaped. Dogs followed his trail for miles only to lose it, and there is no clue now as to where he is.

RICHESON'S DEFENSE

Chief Counsel Begins Making Preparations for the Trial

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 29.—John L. Lee, chief counsel of defense for Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, held for the alleged murder of Avis Linnell, in Boston left tonight for that city to begin preparations for his defense. He will be in Boston until the Christmas holidays.

A Father's Vengeance

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. WOLGAST IN HOSPITAL.

On Eve of Fight for Championship, Pugilist is in Hospital.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—On the eve of a fight in which his title to the lightweight championship was at stake and for which he had brought himself supposedly to a state of physical perfection, Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion pugilist of the world, lies tonight in Clara Barton Hospital, recovering from an operation for the removal of his vermiform appendix. His condition tonight was said to be good, but his fight with Freddie Welch is off indefinitely.

The illness of Wolgast came suddenly after he retired last night after partaking of a hearty supper, feeling, he declared, in fine fettle. With him at the training camp in Vernan suburb, were his partner "Hobo" Roughgerty, and his manager, Tom Jones. There were three beds in the room, one for each man. The party retired for the night at 9 o'clock promptly.

At 4 o'clock this morning Wolgast was at the hospital preparing for the operation.

"At 2 o'clock," said Dougherty, "I was awakened by Ad. He told me he was in great pain. I thought it was merely nervousness due to hard training and possibly worry. I tried to comfort him but he grew worse and I called Jones.

"At 3 o'clock we called Dr. Pollard. As soon as he saw Ad he said 'It's appendicitis.' We rushed Wolgast to a hospital and the operation was soon performed."

Manager Jones, as soon as his protege was placed in the hospital, went to Venice for Mrs. Wolgast and Mrs. Jones. He stopped on the way to Freddie Welch's training camp and told the English fighter the news.

"Well, that's too bad," said Welch. "I don't care so much for the financial loss as I do for Ad. We were always good friends."

It was decided that an operation was the only thing that could save Wolgast's life and that it must be performed at once.

Manager Jones informed Wolgast, who said:

"All right Tom, I'll go through it; but Tom, none of that sleeping stuff for me. Just tell them to strap me down tight and then go to it. I can stand it."

It was 9:30 A. M. when a nurse placed a sponge under the champion's nostrils and 45 minutes later the door of the operating room was opened.

Wolgast came out of the anaesthesia in about four hours and Mrs. Wolgast and Jones were admitted to see him.

"I feel fine," he said to his wife, "and am all right. I'll be out in a few days."

Dr. Pollard tonight said that the operation was entirely successful and that Wolgast would recover rapidly.

Manager McCarey, of the Vernon Athletic Club, announced tonight that he had engaged Willie Richie, training partner for Packey McFarland, to fight Welch tomorrow and that Richie had left San Francisco for Los Angeles. Welch agreed to this change of plan.

ON THE SOUTHBOUND

Officials Make Tour of Inspection—Through Service

Albemarle N. C., Nov. 29.—Monday there passed through Albemarle on a special, over the line of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railway, the following noted personages: Mr. Henry Walters, chairman of the board of directors of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company; Thomas M. Emerson, president of that line; J. R. Kenly, vice president; W. N. Royal, general manager; also W. H. Johnson, superintendent of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railway Company. These gentlemen are now making a complete tour over the line of the Norfolk & Western, from Roanoke, Va., to Winston-Salem, the Winston Salem Southbound from Winston-Salem to Wadesboro and over the Atlantic Coast Line from Wadesboro to Jacksonville, Fla. They stopped over in Albemarle only a few minutes and did not give out anything for publication, but it is generally rumored that the trip is being made with a view to placing a through schedule from Cincinnati to Jacksonville, Fla., at a very early date. It was reported in Albemarle several weeks ago that this through passenger schedule would soon be placed on and there is little doubt but that this is the object of the tour now being made by the above named railroad officials. Already there are through freights making this schedule, but so far the passenger schedule is only on from Winston-Salem to Charleston, S. C. When this passenger schedule is arranged there will not be a more prominent passenger line of railway running through the South, and Albemarle will wake up to the long looked for sight of sleepers running in and out both ways. The good effect of this great line of railway is already being felt in Albemarle.

Prosecution in Stokes Case Read More Than Sixty Letters

New York, Nov. 29.—Some of the famous letters which have figured in the case and two or three which had not previously appeared, were brought to the front sensationally today in the trial of Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad on the charge of shooting W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire sportsman. The most important letter, injected into the evidence unexpectedly by the show girls' counsel, contained the alleged statement by the Graham girl that Stokes need not fear that she would ever make him any trouble.

On cross-examination Stokes claimed that the letter was signed before Miss Graham left New York to visit his farm at Lexington, Ky. This so called "confession," or release, was a part of the evidence which the prosecution was supposed to be holding back to spring later in the trial, but its production was demanded by Attorney Clark L. Jordan, counsel for Miss Graham, and it was introduced in evidence by the defense.

The note was undated. Stokes denied that he got Miss Graham to sign it at the conclusion of her visit to Lexington. He also denied that two other notes, which were introduced, were written at his request in Kentucky and declared that all the notes in question were written in New York and sent to his office.

A new broom, they say, sweeps clean—but it will last longer if before it is used if it is steeped in warm water.

MAY BUILD TO SOUTHPORT

Is Opinion in Richmond of Norfolk-Southern's Intentions

Richmond, Va., Nov. 29.—That the Norfolk-Southern Railroad, with its principal terminals in this city, is destined to become one of the great Southern trunk lines is an opinion which has prevailed some time in the minds of railroad men, especially since its reorganization with E. T. Lamb as president and general manager.

About five years ago the old Norfolk and Southern management obtained control of small lines, which when connected up made a new trunk line between Norfolk to Raleigh.

This big step of development has been followed in the past two weeks by the acquisition of three small lines in the Piedmont section of North Carolina, and it is now currently reported that it will not be many years before the Norfolk-Southern will run its trains into Charlotte and a new Norfolk-Charlotte route will be opened up.

Just what the management of the Norfolk-Southern has in mind by invading the Piedmont section of North Carolina is a matter it has not divulged. There are some who believe that the purchase of the Aberdeen and Ashboro means that the Norfolk's "pet line" intends to build to Southport, N. C., which people believe will eventually compete with Norfolk as a coaling station. From Ashboro the line will be extended to points where connections will be made with the coal-carrying railroads which cross the Blue Ridge mountains into Carolina.

It is not believed that the Norfolk-Southern will stop at the small city of Concord as shown on the map. Charlotte is more likely to be the terminus. At Raleigh, it is declared that there will be a new direct line between Raleigh and Charlotte and the Norfolk-Southern will operate it.

In connection with the purchase of the small Carolina railways, some significance is attached to the announcement that the Norfolk-Southern, will place on the market at once $5,762,000 five per cent. fifty-year gold bonds.

ATTACKS ITALIANS

Many Fierce Attacks Made by Turks and Arabs

Malta, Nov. 29.—Many fierce attacks have been made by the Turks and Arabs on the Italian positions at Derna and Tobruk, according to Turkish representatives. The losses on both sides approximate 1,500. The Italian forces apparently fear to advance beyond the range of the naval guns.

Enver Bey has taken upon a position opposite Benghazy with 15,000 Bedouins, 3,500 Turks and thirty modern guns.

Tripoli, Nov. 29.—Advices received here from Benghazy, the Italian headquarters of the staff, announce that an Italian flying column advanced five miles in the desert on November 27th and attacked a band of Bodouins who had previously ambushed an Italian scouting detachment.

A severe encounter ensued, resulting in a victory for the Italians. Nearly all of the Bedouins were left dead on the battlefield. The Italians lost 12 dead and 30 wounded.

Tripoli, Nov. 29.—Although there has been no general action here since Sunday, the Turks continue their incessant attacks. The Italian and Turkish artillery are bombarding each other intermittently. Cholera in the city has practically been stamped out.

DEMANDS DISMISSAL.

American Treasurer General of Persia Ordered Dismissed by Russia.

Teheran, Nov. 29.—Russia's ultimatum has been delivered to Persia. Russia demands the instant dismissal of W. Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer general of Persia, whose administration of the financial department has resulted in the present complications, and indemnity for the expenses incurred in sending Russian troops to Persia.

Should the dismissal of Mr. Shuster not be carried out within 48 hours, Russian troops will march on Teheran, and the additional expenses will be added to the indemnity. It is stated confidently that the National council will not comply with the demands. Mr. Shuster, in an interview today said that the cancellation of his contract rested entirely with the Persian National Council.

Whatever may be the feeling of the Persian people in the present affair—and it is said to favor Shuster—Persia is helpless before the Russian Cossacks. In some quarters, it is expected that the Russian action, which is looked upon as an affront offered to American prestige, will be resented by the United States government, as Mr. Shuster was recommended for the position he holds by the State Department at Washington.

HELD NEGROES SLAVES.

Railroad Contractors Indicted on This Charge.

London, Ky., November 29.—Nine railroad contractors, accused of holding large numbers of negro laborers in a state of involuntary slavery, were indicted for peonage here today by a Federal grand jury. Contractors are at work on a branch being added to the Kentucky and Tennessee railroad. A special term of court here called for February 5th, next, will try the cases. A hundred witnesses are named so far.

ADMITS GUILT.

Physician Confesses to Killing His Wife.

Jackson, Mich., Nov. 29.—Dr. J. Frank Sudman, the Jackson physician charged with the murder of his wife, today made a signed confession of guilt in the presence of county officials. The physician's attorneys said he would plead guilty in the Circuit Court Saturday. The punishment is life imprisonment.

Sudman says that after he had had a quarrel with his wife she complained of being ill. He gave her some pepsin soda in which he had mixed potassium cyanide, which caused her death. In his confession Sudman expressed the desire that his children be prohibited from visiting him in prison until they are grown up.
